PAY OFFICIAL VISIT TO MT. VERNON

Governor Davis Praises Board of Regents

WREATH PUT ON TOMB

Governor Declares Task of Preserving Washington's Ideals Great Service to the Nation.

Perpetuation of the ideals of George Washington as symbolized by the traditions and memories kept intact by the Mount Vernon Ladies association was praised as a most important patriotic service yesterday by Gov. Westmoreland Davis of Virginia in addressing the board of regents of the national shrine on the Potomac. Gov. Davis and his board of visitors paid official tribute yesterday to the memory of Washington on their annual pilgrimage known as Governor's day. In reverent silence, that was more expressive than words, he placed a wreath on the casket of the great leader and organizer, while the 48 women who have devoted themselves toward preserving the shrine looked on.

George Bryan, of the board of cisitors, assured the association that its work was inspiring and satisfactory, and that Virginia never would allow Congress to take Mount Vernon out of the control of the association.

Others on the board indorsed the pogram of the ladies' association and pledged themselves to help it.

While refusing to commit himself on the point of abolishing the 25-cent entrance fee at Mount Vernon, Gov Davis, it is understood, is in favor of any movement that would tend to make Washington's home more popular as "the great American shrine," providing such a movement is in keeping with the principles of liberty and democracy as championed by Gen. Washington.

The original charter of the Mount Vernon Ladies association, as granted by Virginia, it was explained, permitted the association to charge the entrance fee to obtain maintenance revenue for the grounds and mansion.

Mr. Bryan said he was opposed to the abolition of the fee as being an invitation to "vandals and the riffraff who would turn the sacred place into a picnic grounds."

There is considerable opposition, he said, both throughout the State and in the legislature of Virginia to removal of the fee. He added such a plan was impractical and never would be recommended by the present board of visitors.

With Gov. Davis on the official visit were Mr. Bryan, of Richmond; Robert E. Lee Burke, Egbert G. Leigh and Frank D. Williams, both of Richmond, and Maj. Leroy Hodges, personal aid to the governor. Miss Harriet Clayton Comegys, of Dover, Del., regent, president at the meeting.

HARDING SENDS MEMORIAL DAY GREETINGS TO AMERICAN LEGION

New York, May 27.—President Harding, in a Memorial Day message to the American Legion, made public last night, expressed hope that the future years would bring less need for further national sacrifices. The message follows:

Americans have never been much given to the establishment of holidays and fete days. Perhaps our national life has been so short and entirely within so matter of fact and practical a period of the world's history that we have been little moved by the sentiments that such occasions inspire. Yet, I think no nation has ever established a national day of consecration that represented a more lofty and ennobling sentiment than does our national Memorial Day. To its observance we have brought the full measure of sincere reverence and gratitude that a great people is ever to entertain for those who have made the great sacrifice in its behalf.

Memorial Day marks our recognition of those who, from our national beginnings, have deserved the most that the nation could give of gratitude and appreciation. It reminds us that in every generation, from Lexington to the Argonne, our valorous sons have well deserved the highest tribute that a nation fortified, defended, preserved, could give to them. Whenever the demand has come and wherever it may have called the sons of our proud land, it has always been answered. Though we have never been a militant or warloving people, there has been no time when Americans did not rise to the full measure of the requirement which national honor and national safety imposed upon them. When national safety was the cause the response was always insistent and decisive. When civilization summoned, and our sons were called to other seas and skies and soils we saw the same promptness, the same zeal, the same devotion.

On this Memorial Day of 1921 we stand, I trust, very close to peace achieved, to safety insured. May it be our common aim and purpose that, in the coming years our nation's aim and policy shall be diverted to make certain that there shall be least need for further sacrifices, greatest guarantees of the stability, the permanence and the inspiring character of those institutions of liberty to which our nation has been dedicated.

ARSON WAR AGAIN ON IN IRELAND

Several Big Mansions in Cork Region Are Destroyed

COUNTER REPRISAL

Fear Drastic Measures of Extremists Beginning of New Period of Intensified War.

London, May 27.—Rebel Ireland's arson war broke out again in another sector today. Several big mansions of loyalists in the Cork region were ruined by incendiary fires as groups of civilians in Dublin sadly viewed the ruins of the custhoms house, still smoldering, twenty-four hours after the attack, and reflected that here burned the funeral fire of their peaceful hopes.

The home of Sir Alfred Dobbin, near Cork, was entered by an armed squad this afternoon, the members of the family who chanced to be present were ejected, gasoline was poured in the main rooms and the place went up in flames. In similar fashion an other group burned the home of Eden Pike, justice of the peace, 7 miles out of Cork. Simultaneously there were other fires in the Cork area and various outrages throughout Ireland.

The Cork fires are regarded as a counter-reprisal in answer to the burning of civilians' houses at Black Rock by British soldiers last Tuesday, as a government reprisal for shooting outrages.

At the Irish office one is impressed by the fear of officials that the drastic measures of the extremists are the beginning of a new period of intensified warfare. But the officials are not discouraged by events so far and still entertain strong hopes of peace, believing that the outbreaks are the work of the Richard Mulcahy clique of radical rebels, not of the De Valera group, with which peace negotiations are still progressing sub rosa.

All day today the blackened walls of the Dublin Customs House smouldered and rustled as fragments of debris broke away and fell into the ashes of what was once one of the finest public buildings in Ireland. The street approaches to the building were barricaded with barbed wire.

Belfast was tense and expectant of renewed rioting.

In London, Sir Hamar Greenwood declared that among the ammunition confiscated from rebels in the Dublin district since March 26, were 16,388 rounds of American small arms shell

Former Colonel Arthur Shee inferred from this that Great Britain should make representations in the United States, but it was learned later, upon inquiry at the Irish Office, that the ammunition, being of assorted manufacture, apparently was smuggled into Ireland in small quantities.

In view of this fact and also of the fact that the total amount is considered insignificant, the Irish Office believes there is no basis for a communication to Washington.

THE COAL SITUATION

The present summer prices of coal cannot be guaranteed after this week. The United States Geological Survey declares that coal may reach last year's level. Each day coal becomes more in demand, and as the supply of anthracite coal in the U. S. is limited, the prices will rise accordingly.

We honestly suggest that all "Fannon patrons" definitely place their orders THIS WEEK.

FRUIT MERCHANT COMMITS SUICIDE WITH PISTOL SHOT

Washington, D. C., May 27.—Joseph Ferrero, 25 years old, a local friut commission merchant, committed suicide at his home, 1350 Columbia Avenue, this morning, according to the police.

Ferrero's body was found in his bedroom by his mother and sister, who heard the report of a pistol shot. Life was pronounced extinct at Garfield Hospital. The bullet penetrated the brain at the left temple.

Considerable mystery surrounds the alleged suicide, according to the police. Absence of a motive for the act has caused the police to institute a thorough inquiry into the man's asociations during the past several months.

LACE IN WEDDING ROBE COSTS SMALL FORTUNE

Chicago, May 27.—A small fortune in point lace will enhance the beauty of the wedding gown that will be worn by Miss Lolita Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour, when she becomes the bride on June 18 of John J. Mitchell, Jr.

Four yards of lace at $1,000 a yard was sold recently to be used in the fashioning of the wedding robe. This amount of course does not include lace that will be used as ornamentation in other portions of the bridal apparel.

Bank Bandits Flee
As Girl Touches Alarm

Middletown, O., May 27.—Five bandits, who attempted to hold up the First Savings Bank in the business section here this afternoon, were frightened away when a girl employee pressed a burglar alarm button with her foot. The bandits escaped without any loot.

Herbert Habig a customer entering the bank, was shot in the foot in an exchange of shots between the bandits and bank employees.

PEGGY HOPKINS' DECREE ALLEGED TO BE FORGERY

Denver, May 27.—The divorce decree Peggy Hopkins Joyce claims to have received from her first husband, Everett A. Archibald, Jr., over the signature of Judge Carlton M. Bliss, of Denver, was signed six months after the judge's death, according to her own statements in Chicago. It was also developed that apparently she was never divorced.

Percy Robinson, of the Denver law firm of Rogers, Johnson and Fuller, today announced his investigation of court records here and has obtained a certificate to that effect from the Distict Court, which he has forwarded to Chicago attorneys. Peggy Joyce is reported to have produced a divorce decree signed by Judge Bliss, dated May 3, 1912.

"There, that proves I am not a big amist," she is quoted as saying. But the Denver record show that Judge Bliss died November 29, 1911, and that no divorces was granted such as she claim.

STRAL 3000 POUND SAFE WITH STOLEN AUTO TRUCK

Wilmington, Del., May 27.—Using a heavy truck as revealed by tracks on the sidewalk cracksmen early today broke into the office of the Woodlawn Trustes, Inc., at Sixth and Grant Avenue, rolled out a 3000 pound safe and made off with it.

The safe contained half the "rent day" recipts of the company, estimated at $500.

The truck used had been stolen from the Wilmington Leather Co., nearby, but before the latter theft was discovered the truck was returned to the garage and in it were the wheels of the safe.

BITTER CONTEST IN LABOR'S RANKS

Predicts R. R. Men, Miners and Shop Workers Will Combine

COUNTS ON FARMERS

Declares Upheavel Will Come From Bottom In Next Few Months—Says Farmer is Victim

Washington, May 27.—The United States faces a battle between labor elements that will be more bitter than any past controversy between labor and capital. Forewarning of this impending battle was given today in a formal statement from Secretary Davison, of the International Association of Machinists, in which he declares that the miners, shop workers and transportation workers are merging into a triple alliance.

The statement from Davison frankly declares that an upheaval in organized labor as it is now constituted will come within the next few months and that this upheaval is coming from the bottom and not from the top. He intimates strongly that when organized the triple alliance, with, it is hoped, the addition of the farmers, will become an organization as powerful, if not more powerful, than the American Federation of Labor today.

As alliance between the miners, shop workers, transportation workers and farmers, together with such elements as are not included or have been ostracized from the American Federation of Labor would make for a federation comparatively as strong as the parent organization and according to labor officials no two organizations could exist working independently. There would inevitably be a bitter battle for supremacy and the swallowing of one by the other.

"The upheaval in labor," said Davison today, "not starting at the top, but working up from the bottom, was expected within the next few years and the combination of an offensive and defensive alliance of the shop crafts, railroad men and miners has been under consideration for two months.

"There is need for such an alliance and it is bound to come. The fourth factor in the combination will be the farmer. He is literally being pushed and squeezed into the commercial world today. With the farmer allied with us the combination will be perfect.

"The farmer is getting scarcely one tenth for his crop compare to their cost and the prices on the outside, which affect labor as they affect the public. The farmer is being crucified on the one hand and the ultimate consumer on the other."

The final organization of the new alliance is expected to come at the convention in Denver of the American Federation of Labor. "We expect to watch deevlopments at Denver." Mr. Davison said. "Our future action will not depend so much on what we do as upon what is done by others."

The First War Criminal Convicted.

Without the least semblance of vindictiveness, Americans and citizens of all the Allied countries may rejoice in the news from Leipsic that Sergeant Heinen of the German Army has been sentenced to ten months in prison for his brutal treatment of British and Belgian prisoners of war and that the punishment he so richly deserves has been meted out to him by a court and jury of his own countrymen.

Sergeant Heinen is the first of the German war criminals to be tried and convicted by a German court in conformity with Germany's pledge to the Allied Governments. He achieved great notoriety for the almost inhuman methods of discipline he maintained among Allied prisoners under his charge during the war. His guilt was an established fact before his trial ever began. Former Allied prisoners and high officials of the British and Belgian Governments went to Leipsic to prosecute the case against him before a Germany jury. Even a German jury could escape no other conclusion than that he was guilty and ought to be punished.

This is the first conviction, but let up hope that it will not be the last, not merely for purposes of revenge and retribution, but in order that in the future, should such a catastrophe as war occur again, those who make it may know that there is to be a day of accounting of acts of useless brutality and inhumanity.

Neighbors Again.

William Jennings Bryan is to come to Washington to associate himself with a law firm for the practice of international law. For the present, it is said, Mr. Bryan will divide his time between Washington and Miami, Florida, but next winter he will make his residence in the capital city.

There is perhaps no political significance in the return of the former Secretary of State to Washington. Despite the fact that he still doubtless maintains a considerable following in the ranks of the unterrified Democracy, there is no possibility that he may ever again sway a Democratic National Convention either for himself or for anybody else. The star of Bryan and Bryanism has set politically.

His sometime duties, however, as Secretary of State have undoubtedly taught him many ropes as to international affairs and he naturally desires to try them out. And if Mr. Bryan continues to branch off into new fields, he will earn the mantle of Roosevelt as the most versatile of American politicians.

Confiscation in New York.

The police report on the enforcement of the dry law in New York shows among "vehicles" confiscated by the Government as "liquor carriers" one baby carriage, one brief case, one stove, one pushcart, three boilers, eleven suitcases, one bicycle, two motorboats, four handbags and one bath-tub.

It may be alright to confiscate all of the "vehicles" mentioned but it does seem hard to deprive the baby of his only means of transportation just because it contains a bottle.

AMERICAN INVESTMENT ABROAD IS FAVORED

Washington, May 27.—That the Administration policy would turn toward some sort of aid toward the financial situation in Europe as a part of the effort for general world stability was indicated at the close of a dinner conference at the White House last night, attended by Secretaries Mellon and Hoover, J. P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and a number of other prominent financiers.

Most of those present are understood to have argued emphatically that the surest way to promote export trade would be by helping actively in the rehabilitation of European finances.

WOMAN JUROR JAILED ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

Cleveland, O., May 27.—Mrs Ellen Griffith, tentatively seated as a juror in the perjury trial of former Judge William H. McGannon, was banished from the jury, fined $50 and costs and sentenced to ten days in jail by Common Pleas Judge Florence E. Allen, late yesterday, on a charge of contempt of court.

Mrs. Griffith was accused by Miss Catherine Chambers, a bailiff, of saying it would be worth $100 to an organization of which Mrs. Griffith is a member, if McGannon was found guilty.

While being examined as a tentative juror, Mr. Griffith swore that she had not talked with anyone concerning the case.

Professor Budlong Puts Tanlac To Test

Prof. C. J. Budlong, Manchester, N. H.

"It's an actual fact, I'm in good health for the first time in thirty years and I owe my present splendid condition to Tanlac and nothing else," was the emphatic statement of Prof. C. J. Budlong, well-known and highly respected citizen of Manchester, N. H., residing at 42 School street.

"Practically all my life I had had rheumatism, and when I say rheumatism I mean every word of it. It was all over my body and especially bad in my feet and legs and there were times when I couldn't get from my bed to my chair without help. And from the time I was a boy I couldn't sit down and eat a good meal without being in misery afterwards and I would have terrible pains around my heart and frequent attacks of palpitation and dizziness.

"I had a stubborn case of constipation, was troubled awfully with blinding headaches and hardly knew what sleep was. My suffering had almost made a complete nervous wreck of me and I was so weak I wasn't worth a nickel as far as work was concerned. I thought my troubles had a life-long grip on me and was about as discouraged as a man ever gets.

"Well, before I had finished my first bottle of Tanlac I realized it was different from anything I ever tried. It suited by case exactly. And now for almost the first time since I can remember I can eat anything I want and digest it. I haven't an ache or a pain and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I just feel good all over and am full of life and energy these days. Everywhere I go I talk Tanlac. It hasn't an equal."

SOCIETY'S BOTTOM

"THE INDUSTRIAL HOME"

The Industrial Home turns waste into wealth; both waste material and waste men. Its work, therefore, is absolutely of economic and social value. The man without work and without home, applying for help, is given nothing gratuitously unless from hunger or illness he is manifestly unable to work. If he is able to work there is a variety of labor ready for him through which he may find a home, friends, clothing, food, sympathy, love and a modest remuneration. He may be placed upon a wagon and set to collecting discarded material from the homes of the city. If he be a tailor, cabinetmaker, painter, or a shoemaker, there is employment in the repairing of used clothing, furniture, stoves, shoes and so on.

A list of articles received is most amazing and instructive: Paper, rags, twine, clothing, shoes, metals, bottles, kitchen utensils, bedroom, kitchen, parlor and office furniture, crockery, glassware, clocks, carpets, books, magazines, pictures, cutlery, stoves, pianos, umbrellas, pillows, antiques, hats, ribbons, artificial flowers, lamps, sewing machines, phonographs, jewelry, among usual and common things: but we have also received such uncommon and special articles as invalid's chairs, crutches, artificial teeth, limbs, eyes and hair, which may also be turned into cash.

Your old nwspapers, magazines, clothes, furniture, etc., have provided in a year 3,163,878 meals; 1,063,608 beds and cash paid to the otherwise unemployed in exchange for the labor of collecting, sorting, repairing and distributing this material.

If the man possesses no especial skill there is, beside the collecting of the used material, the sorting and baling of paper and rags, the care of the horses and the wagons, and the janitorial labors open to him.

In the big cities the Salvation Army places all of the repaired clothing in its storerooms and daily conducts auctions, while regular sales go on at all times. Here whole families are outfitted with hats, coats, shoes, as well as furniture, at a trifling cost.

It is the boast of the Salvation Army officers that a wedding can be conducted and housekeeping necessities furnished for ten dollars ($10.00) by patronizing the Salvation Army salesroom.

STEERAGE VOYAGERS LIVE HARD AS LINER RACES TO BEAT TARIFF

New York, May 27.—Life on the ocean wave for the 1,650 steerage passengers on the Fabre liner Providence, in today from Marseilles and Naples, was an 11 day festival of compulsory bathing, haircutting and disinfecting in a race to port against enactment of the Emergency Tariff bill.

Captain Marcantetti heard by wireless that the Tariff bill, which affected many articles in his cargo, might become a law before he landed Confronted them with a possible heavy increase in customs duties and delay at quarantine because of stringent health regulations, the captain ordered quick speed ahead and a severe ablution program for the immigrants on board.

From bath to barber shop and fumigating room the steerage passengers were kept continually on the move, with excellent results, because, the vessel were given a clean bill of health just three hours, after she stopped at quarantine. The captain rushed to the custom house in a taxicab soon after the liner dock and presented his manifest.

The race was won, for the Tariff bill was not yet signed by the President.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Lexington—Virginia Military Institute has just closed the most successful athletic year in the history of the famous West Point of the South.

In Virginia during 1919, 57 persons for every 100,000 of ppoulation were admitted to the state institutions for the mentally diseased, a rate slightly below the average for 12 states, according to figures for 1919 compiled by the national committee for mental hygiene and published in the latest quarterly number of Mental Hygiene, the official organ of the committe.

The census shows that in 1910 the total number of dairy cows in Virginia was 356,000 with a valuation of $28.87 per head. In 1920 there were 457,000 with a valuation of $76 per head. Virginia has at the present time a larger percentage of accredited herds than any other State except Minnesota. The concensus of opinion among dairymen in Virginia seems to be that Holstein, Jersey and Guernsey are the three best breeds for the tSate.

Richmond,—Between 500,000 and 800,000 pounds of wool will be marketed in the "state wool pool" now being formed, according to an estimate by the state bureau of markets, department of agriculture. Growers are now shearing and have agred to a co-operative plan of marketing. The state and federal buerau of markets are co-operating on this plan and the department of agriculture at Washigton will send an expert grader into Virginia to aid the sheep raisers in grading their wool.

Richmond—The city has been and is being stirred considerably on the public dance vice and the brisque "movie" show, launched when State Health Commisioner Williams called attention to the vice conditions, Rev. O. A. Jenkins of Cavalry Baptist Church came back in support of Dr. Williams and informed the members of his congregation that they could make up their minds to take their names off the church rolls or they would have to abandon the dancing places and the movie shows, except in rare instances. Other ministers are taking up the matter in which attention was called by Dr. Williams and they are delivering plain sermon on the same.

Charlottesville—Over 200 Masons from all sections of the State attended the funeral, at Culpeper, of Dr. Harry B. Lee, chaplain of the Virginia Grand Lodge, and for 25 years rector of Christ Episcopal Church, this city. Deputy Grand Master, J. H. Price, of Richmond, convened the Grand Lodge and officiated at the ceremonies. Other officers of the Grand Lodge participating in the services included Grand Senior Warden C. H. Calahan, of Alexandria; Deputy Grand Secretary J. J. English, of Richmond; Grand Tiler Oscar J. Adams, of Richmond, and Grand Tiler Osdar J. Adams, of Richmond, and Grand Steward E. W. Baker, also of Richmond. Twelve Knights Templar were present in uniform. The Masonic cemetery, where the body was laid to rest, is said to be the only strictly Masonic cemetery in this country, only Masons and members of their families being interred there.

BOY BANDS

What live boy does not sometime wildly crave to play in a band?—try out his ability on cornet, flute or drum. Many a man is now in Salvation Army ranks because when he was a blase bored, restless, street gamin, some big hearted Salvation Army Officer sensed the cry of a soul for music and coaxed him into the hall, first to hear the other fellows play and later invited him to try to make a noise himself. No normal boy could resist the chance, because in his innermost heart he is certain that he could play just as well as any fellow in the bunch if he had half a chance to try.

The Army gives them not only half a chance but a whole chance over and over again until before they hardly realize it they are able to play and play well. The regular practice keeps them off the streets, away from gambling dens, out of craps shooting and fighting and surrounds them over those periods at least with uplifting influence. By and by they get into the uniform, and though other interests beackon, the bands hold them when every other appeal fails and many of them not only cling to this Association as Soldiers, but eventually become Salvation Army Officers. This is another splendid type of preventative work which reaches and appeals to boys from ten to fifteen, many of whom actually beg for the privilege of joining.

In Baltimore, Captain Albert Turkington, skilled band leader, who has recently been transferred from the South, is already finding his corps hall a magnet to the boys of the neighborhood eager to join his band which is already about twenty-five in number. Instruments and uniforms are provided for these players and along with the playing, they are also encouraged to sing, for the Army believes in music and plenty of it.

On its Roster at the present time in the United States there are 9,422 bandsmen and something like 25,000 songsters.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS MISSING

An English sailor settled in Australia and after his wife died, leaving a boy and girl of ten and twelve years of age, he concluded to leave them and come to America.

Sometime afterward he met and married a woman who imposed the condition that he never communicate with his children or his first wife's people. He kept that promise for thirty-five years but after her death he began to long for his boy and girl and started inquiries to find them.

At the same time, these two in Australia began inquiries for the father so long lost to them in America.

Advertisements inserted by both parent and children in the War Cry—he in America—and they in Australia—were brought into communication and a happy old man embarked for the voyage that promised reunion.

Nearly two thousand inquiries found issue in the "War Cry" last year. Nearly 800 missing friends were located by this means.

IDEAS

Mixed with ink create Good Printing. With the vivacity of a living thing, this printing that sells finds its reader, whether he sits in the circle of illumination from the library lamp o frowns through business problems in the harsh noon-light at his desk, and leads him unresistingly down Purchaser's Row.

There, with fresh, vivid impression, he sees your product as it is, becomes conscious of the personality of your goods and finds that personality desirable.

Good Printing is salesmanship plus. And the plus represents typographic art.

This tiny tot could be easily "registered" from Virginia or Maryland the reason of the peculiar circumstances of his being placed in charge of the Salvation Army.

This six weeks' old infant was born in a Virginia Salvation Army Maternity Hospital. It is now being cared for along with its mother in the Baltimore Nursery. As soon as the mother is able, a position will be found her in which she will be permitted to keep her baby.

No matter how destitute, forlorn, and hopeless these little foundlings seem, The Salvation Army nurses give them just as much attention, love and scientific care as is bestowed upon a cherished infant in its own family.

A number of babies picked up in alleys, in ash barrels, garbage cans doorsteps and on trains have received a chance of life by being placed in the Salvation Army Institutions. It does not take many minutes to transform a dirty, neglected, ailing infant wrapped in rags and newspapers into a little patient in snowy garments like the one above. Though the Salvation Army nurses receive a very small per cent. of the pay of a regular trained nurse they give the same amount of scientific study and care to the physical welfare as is true in regular hospitals. They also wear a white uniform. Everything in connection with their Maternity Hospitals, Rescue Homes and Nurseries, is as spotless as work and their many years experience in these lines can make it.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaughts have three big games for Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Saturday, at 4 p. m., Government Civilians of Camp Humphreys, Sunday, 3 p. m., Gibraltar A. C., of Washington, and Monday, 3 p. m., the Newton Woodward Club, of Richmond, Va. The civilian post team of Camp Humphreys has captured honors from every military team it has played this year and its record is good. This game is for the benefit of the Salvation Army in its local drive for $6,000.00, and deserves the patronage of every citizen in the community, as the work of this organization is known in every quarter of the globe for its religious and charitable effort, therefore, it is hoped by the club the attendance will be large.

This game will start promptly at 4 p. m., and Alexander and Stevens are the probable battery.

In the second game 3 p. m., Sunday, the "D's" cross bats with the Gibraltar A. C., of Washington, and this contest promises to be interesting as the visiting team is considered one of the foremot in Washington. Snead is looked to for mound work in this contest while Stevens will receive.

Monday, Decoration Day, at 3 p. m., the locals meet the Champions of Richmond, Petersburg and Henrico county, the Newton Woodward A. C., of Richmond. This team has a wonderful record this season and, if reports are true, will be the only team in the state likely to be contenders for honors in the game. Frye, our new pitcher, will toss in this contest and Stevens' to do duty behind the pan.

In these three games the "D's" are up against strong teams and the entertainment found at Baggett's field at either of them, will not be excelled anywhere in this community

The Dreadnaught's pitching staff is being watched by all Washington and Maryland and authorities on the game are frank to admit the probability of the championship remaining with the Dreadnaught Club

All games scheduled this week-end and Monday, Decoration Day, are to start promptly on advertised time and any person looking for recreation, can find it at Baggett's field either Saturday, Sunday or Monday.

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team will play the Independents of Washington, on the Alexandria High School field, Sunday, May 29, at 3 o'clock p. m.

The Independents have been greatly strengthened by the addition of several new players, and no doubt their battle with the Cardinals will prove interesting for the baseball fans who attend.

The Cardinals have lost five out of six games played during the present baseball season, but they have been playing strong teams and credit must be given for not being afraid to tackle first-class baseball combinations. The Cardinals will visit the Clarendon Athletic Club baseball team on their home field at Clarendon, Virginia, Sunday, June 5, where the first of a three-game series for the Northern Virginia Independent baseball championship will be played The annual battle between the Cardinal and Clarendon baseball teams are always exciting and hard fought and both rivals are anxious to capture the championship honors. During the present season, the Clarendon clan have been trimming the strongest baseball teams around this section of the country, and they are craning their necks to find more to conquer. While the Cardinals would rather defeat the Clarendons than any other team, nevertheless the upcounty lads are entitled to the highest praise for their loyalty to their baseball team and home town. Thev have a bunch of players who work together to win baseball games and they are shy of petty jealousies that often cause dissention and disaster in many baeball teams.

A change in some instances some times prove beneficial to those who make the change—and as the local baseball fans have been accustomed to seeing the winners play, and, no doubt, their sporting blood has become stagnated thereby, why don't they come out and see the losers in action? It might put their stagnated blood in circulation, and at the same time encourage the Cardinal lads to improve in their general all-around baseball playing.

The Cardinals are worthy of the support of all baseball fans who admire clean sports. By clean methods practiced since their organization in 1907, the Cardinals are known far and near—wherever sandlot base ball is played—as an honorable base ball club.
